

ELLEN G. WHITE PROMOTED THE FEAST DAYS

The Weekly Sabbath Is The Very First Feast Day Mentioned In Leviticus 23
Feast Days Are Statutes. Statutes Are A Salvational Issue (Psalms 119:155)
Statutes Guard The Ten Commandments And Define Morality Feast Days Were Never Nailed To The Cross, Our Sinful Record Was!

*We as Seventh-day Adventists recognize that Satan uses a counterfeit weekly day of rest to conceal the true Sabbath, could it be that Satan's counterfeit holy day system with Christmas and Easter etc. etc. etc. is nothing but a smoke screen to conceal and/or hide and distract from Heaven's true annual holy day system that teaches us about the plan of salvation?

Statutes Given To Guard The Ten Commandments

-- "In consequence of continual transgression, the moral law was repeated in awful grandeur from Sinai. Christ gave to Moses religious precepts which were to govern everyday life. These statutes were explicitly given to guard the Ten Commandments.

They were not shadowy types to pass away with the death of Christ. They were to be binding upon men in every age as long as time should last. These commands were enforced by the power of the moral law, and they clearly and definitely explained that law." (ST April 15, 1875 [Reprinted in RH May 6, 1875]). {1BC 1104.6}

Note: The statutes were given to guard the Ten Commandments. Both statutes and the Ten Commandments are part of the moral code. The feast days are to the statutory law what the Sabbath is to the Ten Commandments.

This means that the two codes of law work together. The statutes receive their power from the Ten Commandments and thus, if we violate the statutes it is the same as if we violated one of the Ten Commandments. We can draw a similar scenario with the President and His body guards. The body guards receive their power from the President, therefore if one attacks one of the President's body guards it is as if he had attacked the President himself. Severe consequences would be the sure result as will be for those ignoring the feast days and the statutes of Moses.

"If man had kept the law of God, as given to Adam after his fall, preserved in the ark by Noah, and observed by Abraham, there would have been no necessity for the ordinance of circumcision. And if the descendants of Abraham had kept the covenant, of which circumcision was a token or pledge, they would never have gone into idolatry, nor been suffered to go down into Egypt; and there would have been no necessity for God to proclaim his law from Sinai, engraving it upon tables of stone, or guard it by definite directions in the judgments and statutes given to Moses." {ST, June 17, 1880 par. 2}

Statutes Prepare Our Characters For Translation

- "God is now testing and proving His people. Character is being developed. Angels are weighing moral worth, and keeping a faithful record of all the acts of the children of men. Among God's professed people are corrupt hearts; but they will be tested and proved. That God who reads the hearts of everyone, will bring to light hidden things of darkness where they are often least suspected, that stumbling blocks which have hindered the progress of truth may be removed, and God have a clean and holy people to declare His statutes and judgments. {1T 332.3} The Captain of our salvation leads His people on step by step, purifying and fitting them for translation, and leaving in the rear those who are disposed to draw off from the body, who are not willing to be led, and are satisfied with their own righteousness."

Note: To reject, resist and fight against the statutes is tantamount to saying "I'm satisfied with my own righteousness and have no interest in being purified and fitted for translation."
